FAST.

We will guarantee to discount any legitimate prices you can get in the city for the Next 30 Days.

And only ask you to price them before you purchase, and to this end will Specially request you to report to the proprietor at the office any item not priced to you in accordance herewith. We have purchased goods as cheaply as any LITTLE or BIG house and will undersell them

Regardless of Cost.

We do not do this because we can afford it or for glory or to do them any harm, but to get out of business by Feb. 1, when our lease expires; at which time the remainder of this stock will be SOLD or TRADED in bulk. Conference or Correspondence invited to this end. Stock complete in Dry Goods, Notions, Clothing, Furnishings.

I hope this will clear your mind of confusion by signs, circulars &c. We cannot say more or do more; but if you will only give us the opportunity we will confirm our statement so long as our $15,000 goods last. This not only applies to calico, thread and such items as usually sell close, but to ribbons, laces, dresses blankets &c., on which a good profit is usually made. The banks show you have the money so we can see no reason why you should not come early while selections are good. We give away $25 in silver Christmas to our customers. Inquire for particulars.

Thanking you in advance for the liberal purchases which we know you can't help but make when you price our goods.

Yours truly,

Straight Talk From Lockett.

Judge W. H. Lockett, of Abilene, who was the nominee of the populists of Texas for attorney general at the late election, in a recent interview said:

"The late election has demonstrated several things. 1. That ridicule and sarcasm can not kill the peoples party. 2 Telling everybody a party is dead won't kill it. 3. That the peoples party is not dead by 170,000 votes and hundreds of county and district officers. 4. That it required about 45,000 republican votes to keep the democratic party alive in Texas, and evidence to substantiate this read the returns from Harrison and other strong republican counties, and there the democratic majorities will be found. 5. That it will take both of the G. O. P's. combined in 1896 to down the peoples party. Even then the result will be doubtful. 6. That there will have to be another harmony meeting of the democratic party, at which one or the other of the factions will have to eat something besides crow and buzzard. It will be their principles. The people will hereafter repudiate any political party that appeals for their votes on a platform, every plank of which is subject to two or more constructions In the future the democracy, as well as all other parties, must say what they mean and mean what they say. 7. That a nomination by the democratic party in Texas is no longer equivalent to an election. 8. That the peoples party has called from the ranks men capable of organizing and leading a party.

"Out west the populists are much elated. Already we are organizing for the fight of 1896 In my secton we got there with one foot this time, and next election we will land with both. All the talk of organizing a new political party to champion the cause of free silver, to be known as a free silver party, is sheer nonsense. It is a trick of the old party leaders to weaken the cause of free silver and to check the rapid growth of the peoples party, which is as pronounced and zealous a free silver party as could possibly exist. Again, it is well named and thoroughly organized for an aggressive fight for silver, and by recruiting the 16 to 1 silver men from the two old parties we can have the battle for silver gained before a new party could be organized, even locally, much less nationally.

"I, for one, am opposed to any new party or a change of party name. We must let well enough alone and push the fighting upon lines mapped out in the Omaha platform. The free silver man who favors a new party either lacks wisdom or wants matters his own way or not at all.

"The time has come when a reorganization of both old parties is bound to result. A new alignment politically in the ranks of both the democratic and republican parties is brewing. You see, a 16 to 1 democrat and a gold standard democrat can no longer harmonize—one is a democrat, the other something else. The campaign just ended has demonstrated that they fully realize this. The same situation exists as to the income tax, the national bank and tariff questions. The above applies with equal force to the republicans. The financial question will be the question of questions in 1896. The peoples party declared at Omaha in 1892 that this was the all important question, both to the country and to the people. They have said so since, still say so and will continue to say so until it is settled and settled in the interest of the people.

"The sooner the three great political parties of this country declare themselves unreservedly and emphatically on this great question, and invite the people to pass judgement upon it, the better it will be for the entire country. The fight is inevitable. It must come and the sooner the better."

"Who will probably be the standard bearer of your party nationally in the campaign of 1896?"

"It is entirely too early for a young and growing party to settle upon a man for this important trust. We have good material for a national ticket in Senator Allen of Nebraska, Tom Watson of Georgia, Judge T. L. Nugent of Texas, Senator Peffer of Kansas, Lafe Pence of Colorado and others. For governor in 1896 our party would make no mistake in choosing from Jerome C. Kearby of Dallas, "Cyclone" Davis, C. H. Jenkins of Brownwood, H. L. Bentley of Abilene, J. G. H. Buck of Hillsboro or W. O. Hutchinson of San Marcos. We may lift some man from the ranks, place him at the head of our ticket. In this respect we are like Gov. Gibbs of Dallas, we think good gubernatorial timber can be found in every county in Texas"

He expressed the opinion that Dec. 8 would witness the thorough reorganization of the party all over Texas and that the campaign of 1896 would then be begun in dead earnest.

Certificate of Election.

Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 13.—Gov Carr to-day issued certificates of election to the following congressmen-elect; Henry Skinner, Frederick A Woodard, William F. Stroud, Thomas Settle, A C. Shuford, E Z Tinney and Richmond Pearson

Of these Woodard, Shaw and Lockhart are elected by democrats, Settle by republicans and others by both republicans and populists. The seats of all of the democrats will be contested; that of Woodard by Cheatham [rep.] Shaw by Thompson [pop.] and Lockhart by Martin, fusionist.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder Forty Years the Standard.

Pros Victorious.

Denton, Tex., Dec. 10.—Local option carried at Krum by a vote of 43 to 6.

Evans Has a Plurality.

Nashville, Tenn., Dec 13.—The state board of canvassers met to day and canvassed the vote for congressmen and legislators. Sheriff's certificates sent in with the returns from each county give the vote for governor as follows:

Turney, democrat, 104,366; Evans, republican, 105 104; Mims, populist, 23,905; Evans plurality 748

These are not strictly the official returns, as they can be opened only by the legislature next month, but the official returns on their face will differ but slightly, if any, from these Already there is much street talk of a contest and both parties are again charging gross frauds upon election day. As yet democratic leaders have not publicly announced an intention of making a contest before the legislature, though a contest is probable.

Verdict of Not Guilty.

Memphis, Tenn., Dec 14—The jury in the case of W. S. Richardson and Ed Smith, charged with being implicated in the lynching of six negro prisoners on Aug. 31, last, this morning brought in a verdict of not guilty. The attorney general thereupon moved that the cases against the eleven other men indicted for the same crime be nol e prossed, and this was done.

JOHN BOYD THACHER A WITNESS.

He Fully Verifies a Disputed World's Fair Award.

John Boyd Thacher is laconic and decisive in his statement. During the lively campaign just closed in New York, this marked him especially as chairman of the democratic state committee. It was equally true of him as chairman of the executive committee on Awards at the World's Fair. This is the positive and sententious way in which he verifies in an official letter, the honors won by Dr. Price's Baking Powder: "I herewith enclose you an official copy of your award, which in due time will be inscribed in the diploma and forwarded." Thus the question respecting the award, raised by an envious New York rival, is settled beyond cavil. This same rival by the way is widely advertising an award for it self. The official records prove this claim wholly false as they show the New York pretender was not so much as an exhibitor at the World's Fair.

Mrs. Hicks—Why, Mrs. Brown, how pale you look.

Mrs. Brown—Yes, I've been having lots of trouble lately with a boil.

Mrs. Hicks—Dear me! How dreadful! I'm so sorry. Was it on your neck?

Mrs. Brown—No, it was on my husband.—Queen of Fashions.

Don't Starve the Orphans.

The custom of collecting provisions, goods and clothing for the orphans during the holiday season, and observing the Sunday nearest Christmas for prayer and cash contribution, has prevailed for a good many years and has been almost universally conceded as proper. Upon this has been our main dependance, and without its general observance I do not see how we can get along—could not have done so in the past by any human means visible. Now, we beg that this special time be still conceded to the Orphans—the very season when most children have special presents and favors from their parents; but these poor children are without parents to make them presents. There are more of them here than ever before and yet the prospects for a general observance of Orphans Home Day is less encouraging than ever before. Holiday sacks have not been ordered for a dozen places, and not more than half a dozen friends have promised us to observe the day.

I have always encouraged the observance of every day set apart for Missions, Bible Work and Sunday Schools, and now writing these lines with an aching head after midnight, and after earnestly praying to God for strength, encouragement and help, do I sincerely beg all christians and all friends of the orphans to send encouraging words and to resolve before God to make December 23rd, or their meeting day nearest Christmas, a day of earnest prayer and cash contributions to this institution.

These 350 orphans are from all Texas and from all sects, and they need the help of all.

Address, R. C. BUCKNER,
Orphans Home Station, Dallas Co., Tex.

Merchant (to portrait painter)—How much will you charge to paint my portrait if I furnish the paint?

One of ex Gov. Taylor's prettiest thoughts of the many that flow from his lips is here given: "O, beautiful isle of memory, lighted by the morning star of life! Where the roses bloom by the door, where the robins sing among the apple blossoms where bright waters ripple in eternal melody. There are echoes of songs that are sung no more, blessings from hearts that are now still. There's a useless cradle, a broken doll, a sunny dress, and an empty garment folded away. There's a lock of silvered hair an unforgotten prayer and mother is sleeping there"

EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST—SUPPER.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided for our breakfast and supper a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette

C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:
"Allow me to thank you for the great good Hood's Sarsaparilla has done me. It is one of the best medicines I ever saw. For years I suffered with rheumatism and headache, hereditary in our family. I tried everything I could hear of for my own case, but could not find any relief until I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. Though my [illegible] was one of the Most Surprised Men
over town. Not long before I finished the first bottle I was so much improved and felt so much better that I would often pinch myself to see if I was the same man. I could hardly believe that I was, for I could eat and sleep well, and I could get about my crutches, and after I had taken three bottles was a new man and able to do as much work as I ever could. I have laid my crutches away as a
Memorial of My Rheumatism

A Chance to Make Money.

I have been selling Dish Washers three weeks, and have cleared $315. Can any of your readers, without prevous experience, beat this? In this business a woman can make as much as a man. Every family wants a Dish Washer when they can be got so cheap, and they will have one, no matter who it is that is selling it. I am convinced anyone can make from $5 to $10 a day in this business anywhere, city or country. They all want Dish Washers. You can get particulars by addressing the Iron City Dish Washer Co., E. E Pittsburg, Pa., and by beginning at once, you can have enough money by spring to start in most any kind of business. I am going to stick right to this Dish Washer business until I make $10,000.

Ex-Mayor Connor, of Dallas, is in receipt of a letter from a negro democratic editor in Washington, D. According to the following from the Denison Sunday Gazetteer Texas is to have another railroad which will touch our county.

Messrs, Standifer & Eppstein, as attorneys, have received from Austin the charter for the Galveston and Great Northern, Section 2 reads: "This corporation is formed for the purpose of constructing and operating a railway from the city of Galveston to the city of Denison and to the intermediate counties through which it is proposed to construct the same, Grayson, Fannin, Collin, Hunt, Rockwall, Kaufman, Van Zant, Henderson, Navarro, Freestone, Anderson, Leon, Madison, Trinity, Houston, Grimes, Walker, Montgomery Waller, Harris, Brazoria and Galveston." Section 3 provides that it shall establish and maintain its principal business office in the city of Denison. The capital stock is fixed at $1,000,000.

City Council.

Our city dads met in regular session Tuesday night. The absentees were Alderman Parker and Mayor Pearson.

Alderman Walcott was chosen mayor pro tem.

The usual current accounts were allowed, reports approved, etc.

A special street committee of three, consisting of Shain, Brooke and Shrader, was appointed to consult county commissioners, select material and have a stone crossing built from each of the four court house doors to the side of the square opposite.

An ordinance was passed requiring all city officers to hand in their reports before 2 o'clock Monday evening before the regular meeting on Tuesday nights. This was done in order to give the councilmen a little more time to investigate or look over these reports before acting upon them.

Twenty-five names were submitted to the council for the position of night policeman; of this number Vester Gordon was the lucky applicant.

The body then resolved itself into a school board elected Miss Robbie Suttle supernumerary teacher of the McKinney public schools and Miss Stella Robinson alternate, and adjourned until the next regular meeting.

Balls City.

It seems that the gulf coast is to be the most desirable place for settlers in the great South West. The city referred to above is attracting much attention. Secretary E H. Porter, of Galveston, is being overwhelmed with correspondence making enquiry about Balls City and the fertile fruit and vegetable land surrounding it.

Stock is being fast taken up in the Commercial Travelers City Company and the enterprise is moving at a rapid gait. A fine hotel and many beautiful cottages are in course of construction. Farmers are turning their attention to the surrounding country. It is a fact that the climate is delightful and the conditions most favorable for health.

Hennessy Leroyles performances of "Don Jose" in that brilliant comedy, "By Wits Outwitted," in Dallas and Fort Worth last season was considered one of the cleverest and most finished acting of the season, both by the Dallas News and Ft. Worth Gazette.

COST SALE.

Continued.

Our reserve stock has proved to be so much more than we expected that we will extend our

Slaughter Sale

Through the month of January unless we find a buyer for our Entire Stock.

We have proved to the most skeptical that we are

Selling At Cost.

And have proven that COST written on canvas, BIG SIGNS, is not always untrue. All people can say the same words in accent and in pronunciation but the meaning of each may be different. Show us where our actions and dealings at McKinney have not compared with our ads. Do you believe it? If so keep coming.

SNOW-BOUND.

'Twas Christmas Eve and o'er the world
A mantle white was falling
When Santa Claus set out to do
His yearly round of calling;
The dear old saint rejoiced to see
A promise of good sleighing,
For lots of snow was just what he
A long time had been praying.

So greatly pleased was he to see
Such charming Christmas weather,
That gayly to his task he flew
Of getting things together.
His ample sleigh was put to rights
And loaded full to brimming,
And soon along the country roads
Old Santa Claus was skimming.

Now here, now there, his sprightly deer
With airy lightness darted,
As fresh when miles and miles away
As when they just had started.
The fleecy flakes kept coming down,
The rambling roadways hiding;
Yet on and on they flew along
Like shadows swiftly gliding.

But ere his journey was quite o'er
St. Nick met trouble dire;
The roads kept filling up a pace,
The snow kept piling higher.
And from his sight the earth was hid
By flakes so thickly flying,
He could not find the road at all,
But still he kept on trying.

Here was in deed for Santa Claus
An awkward situation,
And one that for the moment filled
His mind with consternation;
The kindly soul was sad with fear
That on the morrow morning
Some disappointed little friends
His absence would be mourning.

Still trusting that kind Providence
Would help him in his trouble,
St, Nick his faithful reindeer steeds
Their efforts urged to double;
And often with a cheering word
The jaded beasts he aided,
While on ahead through snowdrifts deep
To find the road he waded.

At length, amid the flying flakes,
By chance old Santa sighted
Not far away a signpost tall,
Whereat he was delighted.
The sign upon the post contained
The welcome information
That close at hand the road ran straight
Unto his destination.

With hope renewed the good old saint
Along the roadway struggled;
And soon he reached a sleeping town
Which in a valley snuggled.
Here ended Santa's Christmas calls
And here his sleigh he lightened.
Then homeward quickly off he sped
Ere Sol the landscape brightened.

The Peoples Party.

The overwhelming defeat of the democratic party in every northern state and its imperilled power in the southern states from the peoples party, makes sure the rapid growth of the new party in every state in the union. The fate of the democratic party is deserved. It was intended by the founders to forever remain the party of the plain people—looking after their interests and resisting the snares and blandishments of the moneyed classes to wean it from their services.

Under the baneful influence of President Cleveland, the democratic party in its national form has tried to outbid the republican party for the favor and help of aggregated capital. No slave in the south has ever responded to the lash of the overseer more readily than has Cleveland to the desires of Wall street, and the representatives of the party in congress have humbly followed his lead

But the masses of the democratic party in the South and West have neither forgoten nor repudiated the teachings of Jefferson and Madison. They have, in many states, manfully withstood both presidential threats and cajolery and repudiated the demands of the money power. However this may add to their honor, the divided allegiance has weakened the party in every section with the result shown in the late election,

The money power fears it because of the independend democratic sentiment it exhibits in the west and south; the people, seeking a true and valiant party, distrusts it, because of its national alliance with the enemy of the masses.

The democratic party must either abandon the money power or the people. It can not longer serve the two masters. If it abandons Cleveland and the money power it will be too weak to win; if it abandons the people it can not outbid the republican party for plutocratic favor. It is this condition that makes the peoples party a necessity. It has grown out of the necessities of a free people. Abandoned by the parties who were once their pride and servants, the people have formed a third party; and this party must live and conquer, for it is necessary to the perpetuation of free institutions —Denver News.

Capt. Creedon Bought It.

New York, Dec. 14—Police Captain Creedon to day made a full statement before the Lexow committee of the purchase of a captaincy for him at a cost of $15,000.

Rappenhargen, a county democratic leader, told the Lexow committee that $10,000 of the money he received from Capt. Creedon was paid to ex Police Commissioner John J. Martin.

DISGUISHED CATARRH.

A Stealthy, Insidious, Weakening Enemy to Women.

There are a multitude of women, especially housewives, and all other women obliged to be on their feet constantly, who are wretched beyond description, simply because their strength and vitality is sapped away by catarrhal discharges from the pelvic organs. These women get up in the morning tired, drag themselves through their daily duties tired, only to go to bed at night as tired as before.

Peruna is such a perfect specific for each case that when patients have once used it they can never be induced to quit it until they are permanently cured. It begins to remove the disagreeable symptoms at once. The back ache ceases, the trembling knees are strengthened, the appetite restored, digestion made perfect, the dull headache is stopped, and the weakening drains are gradually cured. These results certainly follow a course of treatment with Peruna,

A valuable illustrated pamphlet of thirty two pages, fully describing this class of disorders, including coughs, colds, la grippe, and all other climatic diseases of winter, will be sent free to any address by The Peruna Drug Manufacturing Company of Columbus, Ohio.

Cross Roads News.

Cross Roads, Dec. 10, 1894.
Editor Democrat:

The young folks had an enjoyable occasion at Mr. Bob Finley's a few nights since, also a reception at Mr. J. C. Ousley's, given in honor of his nieces from the territory, who are visiting friends and relatives here.

Our school is full to running over, and yet they continue to come.

Miss Davis, from the territory is attending school here. She will board with her uncle, Mr. A. D. Stelzer.

Our literary society, which was organized two weeks ago, by the school and the young people of the neighborhood, met in regular session last Friday night, and notwithstanding it was the first meeting after organization, the members responded to the call with unusual alacrity. After the programme was finished, Miss Ousley, at the solicitation of the society, recited an appropriate piece in a most charming manner. Miss Ousley will soon return to her home.

Mr Frank Humphries, from the Indian nation is visiting here

Ed Stelzer has just returned from the territory where he has been on business. He sold five of his mules while gone, at reasonable prices times considered.

Mrs A. D. Stelzer has been quite ill the last week, but at present is convalescent.

Poultry Industry.

Waco, Tex, Dec. 13.—Thrifty German settlers in McLenan county are going largely into poultry raising, especially turkeys, for which the Waco district is famous Shipments of turkeys from Waco to eastern cities have greatly increased. It is found that in the hilly lands, which are thickly grown with oak trees, the turkeys thrive well part of the year on little snails which abound during the spring and summer, and later in the season on acorns, upon which the turkeys grow fat. The trunk lines are taking away turkeys in car load lots, and the express companies are handling considerable numbers, mostly specially fine goblers, which are being sent by settlers in McLennan county for the christmas dinners of friends and relatives in old states. Johney Jones, who is now a Falls county ranchman, sent a gobler in a cage by express to Tennessee friends. This gobler was only 11 months old and weighed over 40 pounds.

Easily pleased—The man who is satisfied with himself.

A Plan of Organization.

Plano, Tex, Dec. 12, 1894.
Editor Democrat:

I am glad to learn that steps have been taken to permanently organize the populists of Collin county for educational work. I have long felt that we needed such an organization as the Collin County Populist League proposes to be. The alliance has been a great educator, but being a non partisan organization it could do nothing in the line of party politics hence the need of a partisan organization in the reform party. If you will pardon the presumtion, I wish to make a few suggestions in regard to the proposed organization:

1 As to membership, I believe all persons, male and female, over the age of 16 should be admitted to membership, The ladies are as much needed in this work as they are in the alliance.

2. An assessment of 10 cents per quarter or 40 cents per year should be levied on each male member to be paid into the treasury of the county league. With a membership of one thousand in the county this would give $400. With that amount to meet the legitimate expenses of the campaign we could have carried the county in the late election.

3 Each member when admitted should be required to be a subscriber to some reform paper; and save this requirement, the admission should be free.

4 In each local club should be a literature committee whose duty it should be to solicit contributions and distribute reform literature in the community.

5 Each club should hold at least one meeting a month and should have a special program prepared, consisting of music essays and talks on the principles of populism to which the public should be invited. As to the county meetings, they should meet every three months and I favor holding them in the country on the plan of the alliance, and the president of the county league should secure a speaker of note to be present at each meeting and deliver an address.

The secretary of each local club should furnish quarterly reports to the secretary of the county league giving number of voters in club and also number of voters in club and also number of non voters and number of voters of each political party in his school community and number of doubiful voters, their names and addresses

I could make other suggestions but I believe these are sufficient to show the great need of the organizations. I hope every club in the county will send delegates to the meeting Jan 26 and that some of them will be interested enough to invite the county league to meet with them at its next meeting. Brethren, I believe we are laying the foundation for success in '96 by this move.

Popu ist State Ticket

Jackson, Miss, Dec. 13.—At a secret conference last night, held behind closed doors, the populist leaders of Mississippi decided to place a full ticket in the field for every office from constable up to governor of the state at the coming election.

The following delegates were appointed to the St. Louis national populist conference to be held on the 28th and 29th instant; N. C. West, G. W. Dyer, and Frank Burkitt. Several members were interviewed as to who the party would likely nominate for governor and the reply generally was 'Frank Burkitt.'

POPULIST NEWS NOTES.

[Southern Mercury.]

Populist vote in Summit Co., O.: in 1892, 643; in 1893, 409; this fall 2437.

The populist vote in Milwaukee increased from 1286 in 1892 to 9479 in '94.

The populists got a majority of counties in Nebraska, the governor and one congressman

San Francisco has a populist mayor who received 2000 votes more than all his opponents combined.

The total votes of the people's party in the state of Ohio is about 50,000. Last year Bracken received 15,560.

The Chicago Times estimates the people's party vote in the nation as being close to two million while all other parties lost votes.

Minnesota populists rolled up 80,000 votes, a gain of 20 per cent over last year and 167 per cent over Weaver. The democrats were in third place.

Wisconsin populists claim that their party was the only one that made gains, the vote being increased to 45,000 or four times greater than two years ago.

"In many of the precincts of Athens, Allen, Union and Astabula counties, Ohio, the populists loomed up either first or a good second. Democrats always third.

Very latest report of result in Ohio show that the republicans lost 19,475 votes compared with last year, the democratic loss is 74,504, the prohibitionists gained 892 and the populists 33,869 votes.

Massachusetts populists claim to have doubled their vote, and are now third in the race, shoving the prohibitionists into fourth place. Their vote was 9000. The town of Carver was carried by the populists; no votes received there last year.

In '92 Weaver got a few over 8000 votes in Pennsylvania; this year the vote was over 16,000, a gain of 100 per cent in the state. In Indiana county, Pa., the populists polled 3968 votes and the republicans slipped in by 4033 or 70 plurality.

Pittsburg's populist vote was increased from 578 in '92 to 3062 in '94

Luck.

Abraham Lincoln, after being a member of congress, desired to secure a clerkship in Washington, but he was defeated by Justin Butterfield. He was disappointed, but had he not been defeated he would have spent his life in obscurity instead of becoming president of the United States.

Oliver Cromwell was once on board a ship bound for America, but he was taken back by a constable, and the result was that he became one of the greatest men England ever knew.

Ulysses Grant would not have been a military man had it not been that his rival for a West Point cadetship had been found to have six toes on each foot instead of five.

The great silver mine, the "Silver King," had been discovered by the lucky accident of a prospector throwing a rock at a lazy mule.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.
